ATTACHMENT A

1. On April 21, 2021, a Texas State Trooper conducted a traffic stop on a white sedan in Pharr, Texas. The driver of the vehicle was Mariahm MANCILLAS (MANCILLAS). The Texas State Trooper then asked for consent to search the white sedan. MANCILLAS provided consent for the Texas State Trooper to search the white sedan.
2. The Texas State Trooper then conducted a search of the white sedan and found one (1) brick of substance suspected to be illegal narcotics weighing approximately 1.1 kilograms wrapped in black tape. The substance field tested positive for the characteristics of cocaine.
3. MANCILLAS was provided her Miranda Warnings and agreed to speak with Drug Enforcement Agency Special Agents. MANCILLAS stated she knew there was illegal narcotics within the vehicle. She stated she was supposed to deliver the package of narcotics to an unknown individual. MANCILLAS then stated to agents that there are additional kilograms of cocaine at her residence.
4. Agents obtained consent to search the residence in Pharr, Texas and found three (3) bricks of substance suspected to be illegal narcotics weighing approximately 3.5 kilograms wrapped in black and beige tape. The substance field tested positive for the characteristics of cocaine.
